The maps on pages 128, 129, and 177 were drawn on the "Departamento de Masaya," "Masaya y vecindad," and "Granada y vecindad" maps, edición 1-DGC (based on aerial photographs), published by the Dirección General de Cartografía, Ministerio de Fomento, Managua, Nicaragua.

The map on page 254 was copied from Commander Charles Henry Davis' "Rough Sketch of the Environs of Rivas, April 23, 1857," Document 83, Microcopy M-89, Roll 38, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
